THE REGISTRAR OF TRADEMARKS

Citation: 2025 TMOB 129

Date of Decision: 2025-06-16

IN THE MATTER OF A SECTION 45 PROCEEDING

Requesting Party: Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP

Registered Owner: Chico's Brands Investments, Inc.

Registration: TMA909,830 for CHICO'S

THE PROCEEDING

[1] At the request of Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP (the Requesting Party), the Registrar of Trademarks issued a notice under section 45 of the Trademarks Act, RSC 1985, c T-13 (the Act) on November 21, 2023, to Chico's Brands Investments, Inc. (the Owner). This notice required the Owner to show whether registration No. TMA909,830 for the trademark CHICO'S (the Mark) was used in Canada in association with each of the registered goods set out below (the Goods), at any time within the three-year period ending on the notice's date (the Relevant Period):

(1) Jewelry.

(2) Footwear, namely, shoes, boots, sandals, wedges, heels, flats, excluding infants' and children's footwear and footwear specifically made for pregnant women.

[2] If the Mark was not used in Canada during the Relevant Period, in association with some or all of the Goods, and if the absence of use was not due to special circumstances that excuse the absence of use, the registration of the Mark is liable to amended or expunged accordingly [section 45(3) of the Act].

[3] For the following reasons, the registration will be maintained.

ANALYSIS

[4] The purpose and scope of section 45 of the Act is to provide a simple, summary, and expeditious procedure for removing “deadwood” from the register [Black & Decker Corp v Method Law Professional Corp, 2016 FC 1109 at para 12]. The evidence in a section 45 proceeding need not be perfect; indeed, a registered owner need only establish a prima facie case of use within the meaning of sections 4 and 45 of the Act. This burden of proof is light; evidence must only supply facts from which a conclusion of use may follow as a logical inference [Diamant Elinor Inc v 88766 Canada Inc, 2010 FC 1184 at para 9].

[5] In response to the section 45 notice, the Owner filed the affidavit of Christine Munnelly, the Senior Vice-President, Group Merchandise Manager & Design, for the Owner. Ms. Munnelly’s evidence is as follows:

- the Owner is a women’s clothing and accessories retailer founded in 1983 on Sanibel Island, Florida [Munnelly Affidavit, para 3];
- throughout the Relevant Period, the Owner marketed, offered, and sold the Goods to Canadians through its website located at chicos.com/store [para 7], and through catalogues mailed to Canadian consumers [para 12];
- the Owner’s website prominently displayed the Mark in the banner at the top of all pages of the site [para 10, and Exhibit A], including on pages where the Goods are selected for purchase [paras 15-16 and 19-20, and Exhibits D-E]; and

- the Owner's catalogs featured the Mark on the front and back cover, and the website chicos.com on each page therein [Exhibits B and C].

[6] Ms. Munnelly's evidence is that, during the Relevant Period, the Owner sold the following in Canada, in the manner described above:

- in excess of $115,000 worth of jewelry [Munnelly Affidavit, para 18]; and
- in excess of $16,000 worth of footwear including shoes, boots, sandals, wedges, heels, and flats [para 21].

[7] Ms. Munnelly's evidence is sufficient to show use of the Mark during the Relevant Period, in association with each of the Goods. It is well established that, where a customer can order goods from a website that displays a trademark, there is use of that trademark in association with the goods [Fraser Milner Casgrain LLP v LG Electronics Inc, 2014 TMOB 232 at para 22 (LG Electronics); see also Kirby Eades Gale Baker v Endress+Hauser Group Services AG, 2021 TMOB 284 at para 24 (Endress+Hauser)].

Similarly, notice of association between a trademark and goods can be established when customers place orders for goods by way of a catalogue that displays the trademark in close proximity to the goods; the notice of association continues when the goods are delivered [LG Electronics, at para 21; see also Endress+Hauser, at para 24]. The evidence establishes at least a prima facie case that the Goods were sold via both the Owner's website and catalogues, and that the Mark was associated with the Goods via both the website and the catalogues, as required by the definition of use in association with goods in section 4(1) of the Act.

[8] In view of the foregoing, I am satisfied that the Owner has demonstrated use of the Mark in association with each of the Goods.

DISPOSITION

[9] Pursuant to the authority delegated to me under section 63(3) of the Act, and in compliance with the provisions of section 45 of the Act, the registration will be maintained.
